CFMA Names 2003 Award Recipients

Sunrise Software Recognized for Outstanding Service to Customers, CFMA

CHARLOTTE, NC - The Charlotte Chapter of the Construction Financial Management Association (CFMA) is pleased to announce the following awards:

- Executive of the Year - J. Carlton Showalter, Showalter Construction Co.
- Subcontractor of the Year - Johnson Controls, Inc
- Associate Member of the Year - Sunrise Software Inc.

The recipients were recognized at the 8th Annual Awards Banquet held May 22, 2003 at Byron South End. The Awards Dinner included a keynote address by Ed Tapscott, Executive Vice President/Chief Operating Officer of the NBA Charlotte Bobcats and WNBA Charlotte Sting and Barry Silberman, Executive Vice President of Arena Development, Operations and Entertainment. Recipients are chosen based on several criteria, including enhanced use of financial resources and a demonstrable commitment to the community and to the construction industry.

Sunrise Software, Inc., a construction accounting software and support company based in Charlotte, was recognized as Associate Member of the Year for their participation in CFMA, their dedication to the construction industry, and for the quality of service they provide their customers, many of which are also CFMA members. Representatives from Sunrise have been appointed to several CFMA boards and committees on the local level and Sunrise President Steve Maddox recently served on the National CFMA Technology Committee.

The Construction Financial Management Association (CFMA) is the only non-profit organization dedicated to serving the financial professional in the construction industry. Established in 1981, CFMA now boasts over 7,000 members and 87 chapters in major cities across the United States. CFMA is the communications leader and premier source of education and information about those aspects of financial management unique to the construction industry.

*Sunrise Software, Inc and affiliated company Sunrise Technology Group, Inc. is the Southeast's leading provider of construction-specific accounting, job cost, service management and project management solutions. Since 1984, Sunrise has worked exclusively with the construction industry and an experienced staff of industry veterans provides their 500+ contractor clients with award-winning telephone support, training and consulting services.
